Abbreviations:

Common abbreviations, including those which may occur in REED volumes, are listed below. Avoid extraneous punctuation. As a general rule, if an abbreviation ends mid-word, then you use a period (eg vol. for volume). But if the abbreviation ends in the last letter of the word, no period (eg = edn, for "edition", vols, for "volumes").

Books of the Bible:

Punctuation: Mt 10:5-10, 2 Cor 5:2-6

Return to Top

Capitalization:

Only capitalize proper names (eg, King James or Queen Elizabeth), proper titles (eg, Dean Hutton or King (if that is the character's name), and cases in which confusion might result if lower case were used (eg, Spirit for Holy Spirit, to differentiate from spirit as a human characteristic).

Guild names are rendered as 'Bakers' guild', but individual members of a guild do not have their occupation capitalized (eg, John Whitmore, baker). 'Jr' and 'Sr', however, following a name are capitalized and set off with commas, eg, Charles H. Donohue, Jr, is a member of the Bakers' guild.

Specific historical periods should be capitalized (eg, Renaissance, Reformation, Enlightenment), but events (eg, restoration, civil war) or general time periods (eg, middle ages, early modern) should remain in lower case. You should also use lower case on offices (eg, attorney general, master of the revels, and privy council).

Quoted material can retain its capitalization (eg, Hamlet says 'Get thee to a nunnery', not '[g]et thee to a nunnery'). We will also make exceptions for words we would not normally capitalize if they appear capitalized in quoted material.

Capitalize all words in titles, except for articles and conjunctions. This rule applies to all titles, including titles of manuscripts and early books, with the exception of lengthy sub-titles of early works. Do not add capitals to quoted phrases within titles. Use capitals for hyphenated words in titles: Twice-Changed Friar NOT Twice-changed Friar.

Early Theatre Style Sheet

Ibid is not automatically capitalized unless it appears at the beginning of a sentence.

Generally, the following style should be adopted:

- the dean of York - Dean Hutton
- the feast of the Translation of St William
- protestant
- puritan
- medieval period
- Roman Catholic
- Corpus Christi Day
- the colleges of Oxford - Exeter College
- the sheriff of Chester - Sheriff Hardware
- the virgin queen - Queen Elizabeth
- the mayor - Mayor Scawsby

Small Capitals: Use without punctuation for degrees (LLB, LLD, MA, STB, STD); but PhD, DMus, DLitt. Use for abbreviations (BL, NA, MS, JP, MP) and upper case roman numerals, except for references to monarchs. Also use small caps for all standard acronyms (EEBO, LION, HTML, REED, OED, DNB).

Speech prefixes should appear in small caps. No period after speech prefix, only two spaces, then speech. Please note that this is the only exception to the rule of one space between words and sentences.

Do not use small caps for state abbreviations or to abbreviate journal titles like SEL and ELH. Instead spell out the name of the journal titles in full.

Citing Drama:

Punctuation: Give act, scene, and line numbers in arabic; eg, Henry IV, Part One 2.4.432, or the standard abbreviation, 1H4 2.4.432. Use parenthetical citations for play-references; do not put act/scene/line references in the endnotes. The first reference to a play, however, should have both a note providing the source and a parenthetical citation giving the act, scene, line or page information.

When incorporating block quotations of dialogue put the speaker's name in small caps with no punctuation after it, followed by an em space, and then the first line of dialogue. Subsequent lines of the same speech should be indented by one tab. Parenthetical citations of offset material (when they occur) should be one tab past the right margin of the quote, either on the last line of the quoted material (space permitting) or on a new line.

When referring to an act and scene within the prose of the article, use numbers and do not capitalize. Ie, 'In act 5 ...' For signature numbers, please indicate both recto and verso, but do not superscript the abbreviations for these designations.

Example:

MOLOSSO Bother yet alive, the mischief's done already,
But not the vengeance, thou shalt that behold,
Till then there's mothering can be call'd revenge:
Goe bring u'm Sango, though hast had thy fill.
SANGO Of Nectar, sweeter far than that of love. (H1v)

Citing Major Poets/Poetry

When citing major works of poetry (such as Paradise Lost or The Faerie Queene) you may shorten the title to PL or FQ after the first reference.

Punctuation: Give abbreviated title, book number (if applicable), canto number (if applicable), followed by lines numbers (eg FQ.III.iv.46-54). Use parenthetical citations for poetry-references; do not put book number, canto number, and line numbers in the endnotes. The first reference to a poem, however, should have both a note providing the source and a parenthetical citation giving the canto, book, and/or line number.

Return to Top

Commas & Dashes:

Commas: Remove unnecessary commas, but use a comma before 'and', 'or', and 'but' in a series of three or more items.

Examples:

- He held land in Dorset, Devon, and Cornwall.
- Unlike the York plays those of the Towneley manuscript seem to be collected from several sources.
- She could not dance, sing, or play games.
- Clearly the evidence indicates the parish sponsored plays.
- In 1588 England was poor, weak, but determined.

Use commas to set off county names appearing after city names but do not use a comma to separate parts of a compound sentence joined by a conjunction.

Early Theatre Style Sheet

Examples:

- Richard Thomas was a native of Shrewsbury, Shropshire, and first became mayor in 1560.
- Richard Thomas was a native of Shrewsbury and first became mayor in 1560.
- Richard Thomas, a native of Shrewsbury, Shropshire, first became mayor in 1560.

As a general rule, follow The Chicago Manual of Style, opting for the 'open style'.

Dash: Use an en dash (equivalent to hyphen) between figures (eg, 1306-7, 42-3). Use an em dash spaced to set off parenthetical material: it demarcates a parenthetical thought — like this one — or some similar interpolation.

Please note: do not hyphenate the word 'onstage'.

Return to Top

Dates:

The format is 1 January 1546, for example, and January 1452, without punctuation. Use 'the 1920s' without an apostrophe, but write out 'the thirties'. Use a comma in Monday, 1 January. Write out the names of months in full.

Return to Top

Ellipses:

Use three unspaced dots with one space on either side for a medial ellipsis = eg ... Do not use square brackets around ellipses. Use closing punctuation if the ellipsis comes at the end of a sentence. Generally, you should use only medial ellipsis; avoid opening or closing ellipsis.

Return to Top

Font:

Avoid using multiple fonts. Only use Times New Roman 12pt.

Return to Top

Images:

Grey scale images must be 300DPI and at least 3 inches wide (or 900 pixels).

Line drawings, such as woodcuts or musical scores with no grey scale (just black and white), must be 1200DPI and at least 3 inches wide (or 3600 pixels).

Early Theatre Style Sheet

Colour images will be printed at the author's expense. Normally we print only black and white or grey scale images. However, if you are willing to pay the extra costs of colour printing, each gathering of 4 pages in colour will cost $500. You may have 4 full-size photos; 8 half-size; etc. Even if only one page is a colour photograph, the cost remains $500. Images must be 300DPI and at least 6 inches wide.

Image files should be saved in one of the following formats (in descending preference): .tiff, .jpg, .bmp, .gif, .pdf, or .png. Please send images as separate files, not embedded in MSWord, PowerPoint, or other files.

Return to Top

Italics:

Foreign words not in OED should be italicized. When quoting from manuscripts, italics should be used to indicate MS expansions (and should be preserved when quoting from the text of REED volumes, where italics serve the same purpose). Italics should also be retained when quoting passages with italicized words in early printed books (REED prints these in Roman type) and in document descriptions of title pages of early printed books to represent italics there. Bold-face is only used in essays to indicate the article title or subtitles.

Return to Top

Latin Terms:

Use of Latin in notes is discouraged. Do not use 'loc. cit.' or 'op. cit.'; instead use short title of the book referred to (see citation instructions for "Short Entries in Notes"). Exception: Ibid for immediately sequential notes.

Common Latin abbreviations such as 'etc', 'eg', and 'ie' are set in roman type without periods but should be avoided when possible.

Return to Top

Margins:

All margins must be set at 1 inch or 2.54 cm all the way around; including notes.

Return to Top

Early Theatre Style Sheet

Numbers:

Where possible in the essay (that is, where no inconsistency would occur in referring to a series of numbers), the following are spelled out in ordinary text (written in full): whole numbers from one through ninety-nine. For numbers 100 and larger, use numerals.

Use the fewest possible numbers except for the 'teens': 88, 88-9, 800-1, but 18-19. Roman numerals must be written in full: xx-xxii and ccxx-ccxxii. In sterling sums, there is no space and no punctuation between the number and the denomination, eg, 22d, 8s.

Use commas in 4-digit numbers (eg, 2,000).

Return to Top

Paragraphs:

Do not indent the first line of the first paragraph of any text or separate section thereof. Indent following paragraphs. Do not insert extra lines between paragraphs. If you are using Microsoft Office 2007, please ensure it is adjusted properly. Do not use Widows and Orphans, as the printer will try and keep text together where necessary.

Do not use full justification. Set justification at left only.

Return to Top

Periods & Apostrophes:

Use sparingly and omit after standard abbreviations with the exception of l. (line); ll. (lines); d. (died), contrast d (dorse); c. (century), contrast c (circa). Abbreviations such as Mr, Dr, St, Co, Inc, Ltd, am, pm, no (not #) do not require punctuation.

Single possessives should be formed with 's in all instances, in keeping with the 16th edition of The Chicago Manual of Style.

Return to Top

Quotations:

Quotations that offer only part of the original sentence – a word, phrase, or some other unit – will be enclosed by single quotation marks, with end-punctuation outside the quotation mark, with the exception noted below; but if you quote an entire sentence, the end-punctuation may be inside the final quotation mark. If in doubt, put the end-punctuation (a period, eg) outside the quotation mark.

Early Theatre Style Sheet

Examples: “This salad is labelled “fresh”, but what does that really mean?” ‘And finally in a frenzy of grief, Lear rails, “Why should a dog, a horse, a rat, have life, / And thou no breath at all?”’ (5.3.306). ‘Nothing will come of nothing; speak again’ (1.1.92), Lear demands.

All quotations must be checked against their printed or MS sources and should correspond exactly in spelling, capitalization, and internal punctuation. Do not indent quotations several tabs, or use double-sided indentation (from either margin). Indent your indented quotations from the left one tab.

Speech prefixes should appear in small caps, with no period after the speech prefix, and followed by two spaces before the speech. Please note that this is the only exception to the rule of one space between words and sentences.

Short quotations (ie, under five lines) should be run on in the text, with the exception of poetry (including verse drama), which should be set off when more than two lines are quoted. Displayed indented quotations should be indented with a line space above and below.

Return to Top

Spacing:

Do not insert extra spaces. Only use one space between words and between sentences.

Return to Top

Spelling:

The style is basically Canadian spelling, favouring 'ize' over 'ise', as is usually the case with the first example of the Concise Oxford Dictionary, with these exceptions: acknowledgment(s) and judgment.

Return to Top

Transcriptions:

Transcriptions from MSS should be rendered according to REED guidelines using italics for expansions. All previously unpublished transcriptions must be checked in the REED office. Send your electronic copy of unpublished manuscripts from which you quote, and/or digital photographs as soon as your article is accepted. Try to anticipate correct transcription practice by consulting the paleography file.

Return to Top

General Instructions for End-Notes:

Give full bibliographic information for books, articles, etc, when they are first cited. Page numbers follow directly after the publication information (which is in parentheses) with no use of p or pp. All information should be supplied in the notes. Do not include a Works Cited page.

All notes should be prepared as end-notes. Notes should correspond to consecutive, superscript numbers in the article. They should also be double-spaced.

Examples:

9 VCH: Herefordshire, 1.409.

10 The deaneries and archdeaonries are indicated regularly in the Consistory Court Acts of Office (described on 18-21).

11 NA: E 36/229, ff 73-82.

Give short references (author's/editor's name and title or short title) for items previously referred to in full in the notes. These short references are followed by a comma, and then the page numbers. Titles of articles are enclosed in single quotes and set in roman; titles of books and journals are italicized. If you have a string of immediately sequential references to the same author/title, then use 'Ibid', followed by a comma if citing a new page number. If there is a gap between subsequent references, then you must return to author/short title/page. If you are frequently citing drama or poetry, please refer back to our section on "Citing Drama" or "Citing Poetry" above.

Online Sources:

For references to websites or online sources, use a DOI when available. DOIs (digital object identifiers) are preferable to URLs, because they provide unique and more stable identification of the source.

Examples:

Conrad Russell, 'Eliot, Sir John (1592–1632)', DNB (Oxford and New York, 2004-), doi:10.1093/ref:odnb/8630.

Dudley North, A Forest of Varieties (1645), EEBO, 92.

For online sources accessible only through subscription, such as OED, omit access dates and URLs.

For well-known databases with acronyms, such as The Oxford English Dictionary or The Dictionary of National Biography, use smallcaps and italics for the acronym: OED, DNB. Write out the full title along with the acronym in the first reference, and use only the acronym in subsequent references: Early English Books Online (EEBO).
